

15. Slow But Sure

Sammy knew that he had to get back to the field before it was light again. He knew he had plenty of time but wanted to stop and eat some plant leaves first he liked the strawberry leaves best. He started home. He moved slow at first but soon got up to cruising speed. Traveling always easier in the dark becuse fewest big animals were out than in the daytime. He reached the plant quickly and climbed up to the largest leaf. He munched and munched. He ate so much that he fall asleep. He woke up the next day and stared into him mother's angry eyes. Sammy was in big trouble!

Sammy must get home from the field before dawn, but he wants to stop to eat first. He likes broccoli leaves best.
